Dear Member,

At the 2022 APEA/AFT Caucus, the Delegates recommended (2) amendments to the APEA/AFT Constitution. Please read them carefully and vote to adopt the amendments or to reject the amendments. These amendments were approved by the delegates to the APEA Biennial Caucus and the next step is ratification of membership.

A summary of the changes to the Constitution is contained below. The actual amendment language can be found on APEA's Website at www.apea-aft.org under "2022 BIENNIAL CAUCUS". The new proposed language is annotated in bold and underline, while deleted language has a strike through. The justification for the changes along with pros and cons are written on each of the proposed Constitution Amendments are also online.

SUMMARY OF AMENDMENT CHANGES

- #1 Section V B.5 – Board of Directors – Adds Seward Public Employees Association to the Southcentral Region.
- #2 Section XXII 1.A – Removal Procedures – Elected officers can be removed by petition of members or vote of 2/3 of the APEA Board of Directors.

In Solidarity,
